

I am an Associate Director at PR Agency GolinHarris.

I have worked with Phil Lewis and Julie Anderson of Secrets Of on a wide range of projects, producing props for PR activations, photocalls and stunts for some of the UKs leading brands, from Orange to PG Tips and Walls ice cream.

I have found both Phil and Julie to exceptional at creating bespoke solutions, working to tight deadlines they're able to deliver against the brief, producing quality assets. They have always managed to go the extra mile and really understand our needs.

I would have no hesitation in using their services again and in recommending them to others.

Yours faithfully,

Max Wild
